Disco: Soundtrack of a Revolution

SERIES PREMIERE

TUE Jun 4 | 8:30p

This three-part series examines disco's spectacular rise and fall, celebrating its enduring cultural legacy. Born in the lofts and basements of 1970s NYC, disco embodied inclusivity and liberation for minority communities. It turned Black women and gay men into icons before conquering the mainstream, resulting in a violent backlash. Pushed underground, pioneers kept disco's spirit alive as it evolved into electronic dance music.

Cascade PBS Podcasts

Your Last Meal is a James Beard Award finalist for Best Podcast and is hosted by Seattle-based, national Edward R. Murrow Award-winning reporter and host of The Nosh Rachel Belle. In each episode, Rachel asks a celebrity (Jewel, Isaac Mizrahi, John Waters, Jenny Slate, Larry David and others) what they would choose to eat for their last meal. Then she digs into the history, culture or science behind a dish with experts from around the world—from the designer who created Lady Gaga’s infamous meat dress to the magicians who invent flavors for Ben & Jerry’s ice cream. A new episode drops every other Thursday!

POV

King Coal MON Jun 24 | 10p

A lyrical tapestry of a place and people, this documentary meditates on the complex history and future of the coal industry, the communities it has shaped and the myths it has created. Oscar-nominated filmmaker Elaine McMillion Sheldon reshapes the boundaries of documentary filmmaking in a spectacularly beautiful and deeply moving immersion into Central Appalachia, where coal is not just a resource, but a way of life.
